CHICAGO PRESS LEAGUE
SHOW AND BAZAAR

THE Press League Show typifies the daily newspaper. The different departments such as music, art, literature, the stage, "stories of the streets and of the town," etc., being represented by booths. Each booth has a characteristic collection of articles, many being of rare value and interest. These will be sold for the benefit of the philanthropic fund of the Club. The program committee has secured some of Chicago's best local talent which insures not only an interesting program, but also a high standard of quality.

The League was incorporated April 9, 1895, by four well known newspaper women. Its growth is steadily increasing and now numbers about 75 members—including pending applications.

Its objects are, mutual sympathy, counsel and helpfulness among press women. In cases of destitution or temporary distress the club funds are available either as a gift or a loan—according to the needs of the case and the wish of the recipient.

Any woman regularly connected with the press or any reputable publication as a paid writer, or having been previously so connected is eligible to membership, consequently all its members are writers of wide experience, some being of national and even international reputation.

ENGRAVING

FOR many years we have made a special feature of engraving for social events.

In this time our work has acquired such a degree of excellence that it is now regarded as the standard of correctness.

Wedding invitations, cards and announcements, reception and at home cards, and all other forms of invitations, are beyond criticism in every detail when ordered of us.

"WIDER, LONGER, HIGHER" BERTHS.

A certain railroad has put out an advertisement that ought to prove a gold mine to its coffers. It says that the berths in its sleeping cars are "wider, longer and higher than the berths in similar cars of other lines." Everybody of medium height and over who reads that advertisement will be apt to patronize this particular line when going between Here City and Thereville the two points which, as is well known, the road with the big berths connects. Over 200 Blickensderfers used by Newspaper Writers in Chicago

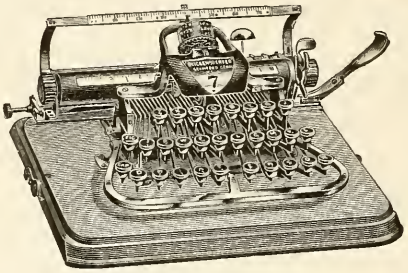
A Suitable Christmas Present

WHY NOT

A Blickensderfer Typewriter?



TWO MODELS:

No. 5 - - $35.00 No. 7 - - $50.00

To Literary Men and Women:

There is no denying typewritten manuscript is becoming imperative. Why not heed the advice of W. D. Howells—"Be your own typewriter."
To have 35,000 words typewritten costs $35.00; why not invest that sum in a Blickensderfer?

To Parents:

The value of a typewriter as an educator has long been acknowledged by the foremost teachers of the country. By being put in your home, for the use of your children, the art of spelling, punctuation and capitalization can be easily and permanently learned aside from the enjoyment to be derived from its use.

For Business Men:

The Blickensderfer will do anything and everything that any other typewriter will do and many things that others cannot do. Being simple in construction, strong and durable, makes it an ideal machine for your office, store or home.
